

JUDGE PUTS STOP TO ALL MEETINGS

Disorder Thursday Night Calls for the Prompt Action by Judge J. M. Mullen.

WOMEN TAKE NO PART

Judge Decides Not to Permit Them to Have Any Say in Proceedings.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

PETERSBURG, VA., August 2.—Judge Mullen, of the Hastings Court, today entered a decree ordering the closing of the Harrison Street Baptist Church, colored, for all purposes until the further order of the court. The judge, in his opinion, rendered yesterday, touching the unfortunate controversies in the church, bringing it into disrepute and causing serious troubles, allowed the acting pastor to hold religious services, but no business meetings, and the first meeting under this decision was held last night as announced, for religious purposes. It was apprehended, and affidavits were made during the day by many members of the church, that if this meeting were allowed the peace would be broken and riot and bloodshed might follow. These apprehensions were verified, and for the present and highly commendable action of a large body of police, serious consequences would probably have resulted. The "religious" portion of the services were quickly followed by ill-adviced personal references, which brought up the old troubles between the two church factions and aroused much excitement and animosity. The scenes that followed were simply disgraceful, and a rush was made for the doors, amidst cries of "fighting." It was at this moment that the police entered the church and stopped further proceedings, which threatened violence and bloodshed, by dispersing the congregation. The people crowded into the street talking and acting excitedly, and were only forced to disperse then by the threat that the fire department, which was present and in readiness, would deluge them with streams of water. This threat, which would have been carried into execution but for the desired effect, and in a few minutes the crowd had disappeared.

Put Stop to It.

The proceedings of last night, which were in manifest disregard of the orders of court, were reported to Judge Mullen this morning, and, in addition, a petition from a number of citizens residing in the neighborhood of the church was presented to the court, declaring the disorderly and disgraceful proceedings last night and on previous occasions were not only a menace, but a nuisance to the residents of the vicinity, and asking that the church be closed.

The judge promptly entered a decree ordering the church to be closed until further order to both factions and for all purposes; and it was further ordered that at the meeting to be held on the 9th of September, under direction of a commissioner of the court, to pass upon the matters in controversy, all women be excluded.

Captain Charles Lassiter, Jr., of this city, will succeed himself as Senator from the district composed of Petersburg and Dinwiddie. He came out victorious and by a handsome majority in a contest remarkable for its character, and in which the Anti-Saloon League was actively engaged. It is stated that he carried Dinwiddie against Mr. Doyle by a small majority. Ministers and churchmen worked against Captain Lassiter, and in the interest of the league. As good Democrats, and yielding to the will of the majority, they are, of course, pledged now to vote for Lassiter at the general election.

R. Bolling Wilcox, Jr., is the Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates from Petersburg; Thomas E. Clarke is the nominee from Dinwiddie, and Senator A. R. Hobbs will succeed himself in the Senate from the district composed of the counties of Prince George, Surry, Greensville and Sussex.

Enough is not known to give the name of the nominees for county offices in Dinwiddie, for which there was a hot contest, with two candidates for each office, except that of treasurer.

Death of Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Eliza Jane Brown, widow of the Rev. Mr. Brown, of the North Carolina Conference, died this morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. D. V. Parker, in Chesterfield county, near this city, and the body will be taken to Durham, N. C., for interment tomorrow morning. Mrs. Brown was a most estimable and beloved lady. She was sixty-six years old, and is survived by seven sons and daughters, residing in different States.

Farmen Berberick, of Chesterfield county, while hauling a load of wood evening before last, was thrown from his wagon by the running away of his horses. He was run over and had several ribs broken. The horses took fright at a passing trolley loaded with children.

Late news from Dinwiddie this afternoon says that John W. Galusha was yesterday nominated for sheriff and ex-Judge R. J. Epps for Commonwealth's attorney.

GIRL BABY'S AWFUL ECZEMA

Sight of Eye Destroyed by Disease—Tried Five Doctors but Grew Worse—In Agony Eight Months—Parents Discouraged, Until They Tried Cuticura Remedies

IN ONE WEEK ALL SORES DISAPPEARED

"Our little girl, one year and a half old, was taken with eczema or that was what the doctor said it was. We called in the family doctor and he gave some tablets and said she would be all right in a few days. The eczema grew worse and we called in doctor No. 2. He said she was teething, as soon as the teeth were through she would be all right. But she still grew worse. Doctor No. 3 said it was eczema. By this time she was nothing but a yellow, greenish sore. Well, he said he could help her, so we let him try it about a week. One morning we discovered a little yellow thing on one of her eyes. Of course we phoned for doctor No. 3. He came over and looked her over and said that he could not do anything more for her, that we had better take her to some eye specialist, since it was an ulcer. So we went to Oswego doctor No. 4, and he said the eyesight was gone, but that he could help it. We thought we would try doctor No. 5. Well, that proved the same, only he charged $10 more than doctor No. 4. We were nearly discouraged. I saw one of the Cuticura advertisements in the paper and thought we would try the Cuticura Treatment, so I went and purchased a set of Cuticura Remedies, which cost me $1, and in three days our daughter, who had been sick about eight months, showed great improvement, and in one week all sores had disappeared. Of course it could not restore the eyesight, but if we had used Cuticura in time I am confident that it would have saved the eyes. We think there is no remedy so good for any skin trouble or impurity of the blood as Cuticura. Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Scott, N. E. D. N. Fulton, Oswego Co., N. Y., August 17, 1906."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Form of Infant, Children, and Adults. Consists of Cuticura Soap (25c) to cleanse the skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c) to soothe and protect, and Cuticura Tablets (50c) to purify the blood. Sold throughout the world. CHAPLAIN JONES DRAWS FIRST BLOOD

Navy Department Wires Order to Grant Time Desired by Defense.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NORFOLK, VA., August 2.—Chaplain Harry W. Jones, United States Navy, has drawn first blood in the court-martial proceedings under way against him at the Norfolk Navy Yard on charges of scandalous conduct, destructive to good morals, and misrepresentation. When the court convened for the first time yesterday, Captain Daniel A. Stuart, its president, denied a petition of the chaplain, through his attorney, James Kerr, of Norfolk, for time in which to prepare a defense, the attorney having just entered the case.

An appeal for more time was then made direct to the Navy Department at Washington, and when the court met at 10 o'clock this morning an order was received from the department adjourning court immediately until 10 o'clock Monday morning in order that the accused might, through his counsel, have time in which to prepare a defense.

There was whiskey on his person, and it is supposed that he sat down on the track and fell asleep. Hale came in from Bluefield about 11 o'clock and had started to walk to New River. He was about forty years old, and has a family.

They were held on Lee Parade in the afternoon, and thousands of people surrounded the grounds to witness them. The best mounts in the army were used by the contestants, and both horses and men were trained to a high state of perfection.

Such exhibitions of expert riding as were given this afternoon are seldom seen. The spectators were worked into a high state of excitement, the entries in each of the events, from the potato race to the Roman standing
